

My hearing mother loves Video Relay Service because she no longer has to wait for a prolonged period of time. However, the wait period for an interpreter has been so long that I often resort to the Internet relay that my mother does not like. Please do more to ensure that funds are available to shorten the wait period.